Ontario ‘Who Am I?’

Colonel John Graves Simcoe, who was Lieutenant-Governor of Upper Canada from 1790 to 1796. Although Simcoe followed instructions and made York (Toronto) the capital of Upper Canada, he went to his grave convinced that London was a far better choice.

Are You Awake?

THE WALDEMAR EGGS: The sixth customer took the last egg still in the carton. THE PREACHER’S ARITHMETIC TEST: It was Noah who loaded animals into the ark. FROM HILLSBURGH TO HORNING’S MILLS: The spare was flat.

Are You Fully Awake?

HOW OLD IS GRANDMA? She was born in 1940 (1961, the key 20th century year, minus 21). In 2008, Grandma would turn 68. ARTISTS ALONG THE CREDIT: the painters were three generations: a grandmother, her daughter, and the latter’s daughter, two mothers and two daughters. THE LINEUP: 37

Are You More Than Just Awake?

AT THE FAMILY REUNION: Four daughters and three sons. THE SHELBURNE CLOCKS: Twice. The north clock loses 24 minutes a day. If the south clock were accurate, it would take 30 days for both to show the exact same time again. But since the south clock gains at the same rate the north loses, the spread is 48 minutes a day so their times will match in 15 days (March 15 and again on March 30). AT MINORA PARK IN ORANGEVILLE: Evelyn (Fred wants bridge, Eedie, canasta and Fergie, euchre.)
