

UPPER GRAND TRAILWAY

The Upper Grand Trailway is Grand Valley's pride. It is carefully maintained and now has a crushed shale surface.

The 3km section from Waldemar to Grand Valley is particularly picturesque; farther west it crosses fine farms backstopped by occasional windmills. Snowmobilers pack down the snow, so it can be hiked year-round. But beware a cold winter wind.

WHITE OAK

Look for swamp white oaks. The leaves are green on top and "hairy white below."

This Memorial Dry Stone Wall was created by family, friends and volunteers under the direction of Eric Landman on Earth Day May 1, 2010. "A tribute to Bev Pullen, our trailway founder. May 28, 1947 – January 18, 2009. A treasure for all Eternity."
